

Bentley LEARN Subscriptions

Providing Just-in-Time Learning to Enable Successful Project Teams

When you invest in the right software, you're taking a huge step toward ensuring project success. And to get the most from your investment, your designers and engineers need to adopt and master it—fully exploiting the latest functionality to deliver the best outcomes for your clients.

Bentley LEARN subscriptions make this easy to do. Subscriptions provide access to diverse, IACET-accredited learning opportunities; services and support that help you align learning with your business objectives; and assessments and transcripts for gauging impact. You'll quickly realize increased efficiency and higher quality project work.

Flexible Subscription Options

As a LEARN subscriber, you gain instant access to all of the learning opportunities, services, and support offered by Bentley. Choose from:

- A personal, single-person subscription for a specific infrastructure professional
- An organizational subscription – the most cost-efficient way to establish a common foundation of knowledge, skills, and best practices

Personalization Based Upon Individual Needs and Preferences

Bentley LEARN makes it easy to develop a training plan tailored for individuals, project teams, or your entire organization so users learn what they need, when they need it. Learning opportunities are available to suit every learning style and time constraint. For example, many live, online courses take less than an hour to complete, and on-demand training videos typically are just 15 minutes or less.

Unlimited access to Bentley LEARN content allows users to work at their own pace. They can review material multiple times to reinforce skills, skip past content that is not relevant to them, and discover related courses that will allow them to grow their expertise.

Bentley has been accredited as an Authorized Provider by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET).
